

the fact that it may remove opposition to Parker from those who have been opposing him, owing to the fact that he is so closely allied with David B. Hill. The only objection raised against Parker himself by Democrats in Congress is that he has no political record by which he may be judged by the country after he has received the nomination. By many this is regarded as an element of strength.

The fact that Mr. Hill has taken command of the Democratic forces, doing assuming an attitude of hostility to Mr. Murphy, the Tammany leader, whose recent great victory with McClellan in New York City has given new energy to the party, excites an apprehension that the nomination of Judge Parker would mean the enthronement of Hill, not only as the controlling power in New York, but as the dominating influence in the National organization of the party. This condition of affairs naturally excited a doubt as to whether Parker could obtain the Independent or "mugwump" vote so necessary to the success of any candidate nominated.

Leader Murphy of Tammany, who has been booming Cleveland for the nomination, is said to really favor the nomination of McClellan, but, having gone on record for Cleveland, who has now come out for Parker, the claim is made that he must follow the former President and also join the Parker bandwagon. This, it is said, will show that Parker is not dominated by Hill.

To Counteract This Effect.

It is said that Mr. Cleveland's letter was especially designed to counteract the effect in New York of Hill's advocacy of Parker. New York people, with their usual insularity, are entirely unaware of the fact that David Bennett Hill is immensely popular in Ohio, Indiana, Kansas and various other Western and Southwestern States, and that he was the real head of the Kansas City convention four years ago.

Hill, however, is unpopular with the New York Democrats, and they have therefore been extremely strenuous in soliciting Mr. Cleveland to make a declaration for Parker, so as to show that the Kingston Judge is not alone Hill's man, but he has the support of representative Democrats, and particularly of the old-line conservative element, of which Grover Cleveland is still the idol.

They don't deny that the Parker boom has been largely engineered for the express purpose of killing off Mr. Hearst, and that it represents the consolidated Gorman, Cleveland, Olney elements. They expect to beat Hearst thoroughly by the application of the unit rule everywhere. They are not afraid of his securing isolated delegates in different States so long as he is unable to secure a clear majority of any delegation in the large States.

SMALL WAR CLOUD IS DISAPPEARING

Italian Captain Yielded Before Austrians Could Execute an Order to Fire—Peace Is in Sight.

ROME, April 10.—Signor Tittoni, the Italian Foreign Minister, in an interview today, said that he and Count Golukowski, the Austrian Foreign Minister, were entirely satisfied with their meeting at Abbazia yesterday, and that they would communicate to Parliament. The following telegraphed from Vienna to the newspaper Independent causes a sensation:

"The resurrection of the agitation in Italy in which Italian provinces claimed the Italian provinces still under Austria so strained the relations of the two countries that they were several times on the point of declaring war. Austria was indignant when Italy protested to the Emperor of Germany, who, according to the triple alliance, is the arbiter of Austro-Italian disputes. The Emperor decided that Italy was wrong in not suppressing the anti-Austrian movement and that Austria would be wrong if she tried to occupy Albania and thus conflict with Italian interests. There being no appeal from this decision, Italy and Austria decided to complete the second obtained through the meeting at Naples. Emperor Joseph was cordially welcomed by Victor Emmanuel, in whose toasts contrary to other similar manifestations, Emperor Francis Joseph was cordially welcomed. Besides this meeting at Abbazia, which occurred in one of the Italian provinces subject to Austria, it was understood as Italy's formal renunciation of this province."

Bad Austro-Italian feeling in which there is a risk of checking the work of diplomacy, has been aroused by an incident which occurred yesterday at the meeting of the Ministers at Abbazia was taking place. The Italian steamer Molletta, on arrival at Cattaro, a fortified seaport in the Austrian province of Dalmatia, was approached by Austrian gunboats, who said they wished to inspect the vessel. The captain of the Molletta refused to allow the gunboats to come on board if they came armed, and the soldiers threatened to attack the ship. The captain displayed the Italian flag over the gangway, where the gunboats were ordered to fire. Before the order could be carried into execution the captain yielded in the face of the Italian Government will bring the matter to the attention of the Austrian Government and ask for an explanation.

LARGE COAL DEPOSIT FOUND IN ALASKA

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The geological survey has received a report of an extensive deposit of Alaskan coal, accessible to the Pacific ocean, located from 12 to 25 miles inland from Controller bay, Alaska. The coal fields lie behind the Controller bay oil fields, at the foot of the Chugach mountains. The coal and oil were found to be in two distinct separate formations that lie in roughly parallel belts. The coal area as at present recognized, includes about 85 square miles. The coal resembles the harder bituminous coals of the East more than it does anthracite.

BRIDE SUES RICH BANKER FOR $25,000

Accuses Father-in-Law of Alienating the Affection of Her Husband and Keeping Him Away.

Special to The Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 10.—For the alienation of the affection of her husband, Harold Smith, Ethel Williams Smith began suit yesterday against her father-in-law, Winthrop Smith, the banker, for $25,000.

The plaintiff is a tall, beautiful woman of the blonde type, was married to the banker's son in June, 1902, at Wilmington, Del., without the knowledge or consent of either of their parents. It is said that Banker Smith was very wrath when he learned that his son had contracted a secret marriage and at once resorted to every means in his power in an endeavor to bring about a separation of the young couple.

After the marriage the young man took his wife to apartments at Fifty-eighth street and Grand avenue and studiously held aloof from his father, who had refused to recognize his bride. Meanwhile Banker Smith had been seeking an interview with his son in the hope of being able to persuade him to leave his newly-made wife. Finally, after stormy interviews, he was ordered out of the office by Mr. Smith, at whose direction a special officer at the bank ushered her out of the building.

The young couple continued to live together until the following December, when, it is alleged, Harold was again enticed away from his wife by means of a bribe and induced to go to New Mexico, where he has remained to the present time.

MARRIAGE FOLLOWS SALAD DINNER

Prominent Actress Consents to a Hasty Wedding, and Says She's Very Happy.

Special to The Tribune.

NEW YORK, April 10.—After a seductive dinner of lobster salad, following a courtship of happy brevity, William Orr and Miss Lillian Tobin reached across a table, grasped hands pledging and agreed to immediately marry. They summoned a mutual friend and hastened to the Little Church Around the Corner, but the Rev. Dr. Houghton was not to be found. This did not lessen the young people's determination, but, instead, they drove to the home of Rev. John P. Steen, rector of the Ascension Memorial church, and here the knot was tied. A few hours later a wedding breakfast was served at the Waldorf-Astoria, with three happy persons constituting a whole party.

Mr. Orr is a nephew to former Senator Bruce, and a cousin to Capt. Wally Bruce, who in 1902, in the Harvard law school a few years ago, caused a ripple in society by his marriage to Miss Ricketts, then playing in the Columbia theater, Boston. A short time ago Mr. Bruce died in his home in Chicago. Mr. Orr is a Philadelphia business man, and coming to this city joined the company in "The Defender," as Lillian Carlton. She played in "The Runaways" in the Casino last summer, and spent on a tour with the company, returning to this city two months ago.

"There was nothing impulsive in our marriage," said Mrs. Orr. "We agreed to wed because we both did know what we were doing, and as we wanted to save all the fuss of a church wedding, just went and had it over, without our friends knowing anything about it. I am sorry the Rev. Mr. Houghton did not hear the bell ring, but perhaps there was no one in the house. We were anxious to be married by him as I especially have a sentimental fondness for the Little Church Around the Corner."

"Yes, we made up our minds in a restaurant to the ceremony performed at once. We were just talking, and when Will made the proposal to have the wedding immediately I said I was willing and ready. We had been engaged, and there was no reason why we should delay."

Mr. Orr was reluctant to talk about the wedding, but the bride, who was very happy when she told about her new-found happiness.

Irving, pastor of the People's church and friend of William J. Bryan, must arise at 2 a. m., because most of the members cannot get together at any other hour. They are unable to attend church services on Sunday and Rev. Irving agreed to get up in the middle of the night in order to address them.

Mr. Irving was a friend of the late Philo S. Bennett, who left money to William J. Bryan. Mr. Bennett also remembered Mr. Irving's church.

FIVE MEN WOUNDED IN FEUD BATTLE

Men Fought Half an Hour, and Caused Such Commotion That Street Cars Were Blocked.

NEW YORK, April 10.—In a feud here today three brothers, Thomas, William and Michael Gilbride, were seriously if not fatally stabbed, and Harry and John McShane, also brothers, were badly wounded.

On Saturday a fight occurred between Harry McShane and Thomas Gilbride, and both were arrested. Today meeting Gilbride and his two brothers on the street with several of their friends, McShane gathered about twenty of his friends in the back room of a saloon at the corner of First avenue and Twenty-third street. Then he approached Gilbride, professed regret over their trouble of the day before and finally induced the Gilbride party to go with him to the saloon to drink and forget their differences. As soon as all were inside the saloon, McShane is said to have given a signal, at which his friends began the fight. Between these two men lasted five minutes and Gilbride fell to the floor insensible and bleeding profusely from a large cut in the abdomen and another cut on the shoulder.

Then Harry McShane attacked William Gilbride and inflicted several wounds. The men fought their way out of the saloon and continued the battle in the street, causing a crowd to collect that blocked the surface cars and led to the calling out of police reserves.

The fight lasted half an hour. When the police reserves arrived they sent Thomas and William Gilbride to the hospital and arrested the two McShanes, who were bleeding from a dozen wounds. Michael Gilbride, with a serious stab wound over his heart, evaded the police.

HER FRIEND'S RINGS FOUND ON HER FINGERS

Sorry Plight of a Popular Ohio Belle Who Visited in Cincinnati and Was Arrested for Theft.

CINCINNATI, O., April 10.—Charged with stealing rings belonging to her hostess, Miss Elizabeth Dunn of Findlay, O., gave $1000 bonds for her appearance at the Police Court here this morning. She came to this city to attend the convention of Bathing Sisters, and stayed at the home of a friend, Miss Long, 149 Wesley avenue. She was one of Findlay's most popular young women, and a daughter of T. C. Dunn, well known and respectable.

After her guest had gone Miss Long missed several rings, and suspecting her friend, she notified Arthur H. Furth, who searched for Miss Dunn, identified the stolen property on the fingers of the Findlay girl and the arrest followed. Miss Dunn refuses to discuss the matter, saying that she will have no trouble purging herself of the ugly charge. Her parents are prostrated and her friends refuse to believe her guilty.

IRRIGATION'S INCREASE IN NEW MEXICO GREAT

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The census bureau, in a preliminary report on irrigation in New Mexico in 1903, shows 254,945 acres irrigated from all sources. The number of farms represented was 9285, and the average cost per irrigated acre $16.87. The 1286 irrigation systems cost initially for main canals and ditches and the necessary headgates, reservoirs, dams, pumping plants, etc., $2,391,915. The entire length of main canals and ditches was 2446 miles, an average length per system of over twelve miles.

Since 1899 the irrigated area has increased 61,028 acres, or 25 per cent, while the increase for the decade 1889-99 was over 122 per cent.

A adulteration goes full length in spices and flavoring extracts—you think it isn't worth while to cheat in such trifles—four-fifths of "vanilla" is tonka; cost's one or two cents for "$1-worth". Schilling's Best are entirely pure; at your grocer's.
